Connected Junior Members

The qualifications for each of those classes shall be the same as set out in Rules 5 to 8 inclusive and Rules 14 and 15 respectively.

- 13.6 The subscription payable by each Trial Sailing Member shall be that which would be payable if such Trial Sailing Member were a member of the relevant applicable class but reduced by one half.

14. Junior Members

A Junior Member is a person who is not less than five years old and is less than 21 years old on 1 October of the current subscription year and either or both of whose parents are not members of the Club.

15. Connected Junior Members

A Connected Junior Member is a person who is not less than five years old and is less than 21 years old on 1 October of the current subscription year and one or both of whose parents is a fully paid-up Young Family Member or Adult Family Member of the Club. A Connected Junior Member shall not be required to pay an annual subscription in addition to the annual subscription (“parental subscription”) paid by his or her parent. A Connected Junior Member shall not be entitled to exercise any right, benefit or privilege of membership during any subscription year for so long as the relevant parental subscription or any part thereof for that year remains unpaid.

16. Junior and Connected Junior Members

- 16.1 Each candidate for Junior Membership or Connected Junior Membership shall make application on the requisite form and must be proposed and seconded by separate full members of one year’s standing entitled to attend and vote at a General Meeting of the Club. The parent or guardian of a candidate for Junior Membership or Connected Junior Membership shall undertake to pay all sums due to the Club from time to time by the Junior Member or the Connected Junior Member and the Council shall not be required to consider any application for Junior Membership or Connected Junior Membership unless it is accompanied by such an undertaking in the form prescribed by the Council from time to time. The proposer of a candidate for Junior Membership or Connected Junior Membership shall be responsible for such member and his actions and behaviour on Club premises
- 16.2 Junior Members and Connected Junior Members shall not enjoy any right, benefit or privilege of membership other than the personal use of the Club’s premises for the duration of such Junior Membership or Connected Junior Membership together with such other privileges (if any) as Council may from time to time determine.
- 16.3 The membership of any Junior Member or Connected Junior Member may be terminated without notice by simple majority vote of Council in its absolute discretion at any time. If the membership of any Junior Member shall be terminated under this Rule, the Club shall pay to such Junior Member the amount pro-rata of any subscription (but not any entrance fee or other levy) paid by such Junior Member attributable to the period from the date of termination to the 30 September next following but without interest thereon.
- 16.4 Junior Members and Connected Junior Members under the age of seventeen may not purchase or attempt to purchase tobacco or cigarettes within the Club premises.
- 16.5 Junior Members and Connected Junior Members under the age of fourteen are not permitted in any of the licensed bar areas for the time being unless accompanied by and under the control of a responsible adult member at all times.

- 16.6 Any Junior or Connected Junior Member may apply to become a full member of the Club upon attaining the age of 21 years. Provided that such application is made before 1 October next following the date upon which such Junior or Connected Junior Member has attained the age of 21 years, such Junior Member or Connected Junior Member shall not be required to pay any entrance fee for joining the Club but shall be required to pay the relevant full membership subscription for the then current year. The Council may, in its absolute discretion, waive the requirement for payment of the entrance fee for any such applicant for full membership whose application is made after the 1 October next following the date upon which such Junior or Connected Junior Member has attained the age of 21 years.

17. Honorary Members

- 17.1 Save only as otherwise expressly provided by Rule 17.4, Honorary Members must be proposed by Council and seconded by a full member of the Club entitled to attend and vote at a General Meeting of the Club and such proposal must be ratified by the Annual General Meeting of the Club at its meeting next following such proposal. The rights, benefits and privileges of an Honorary Member shall not be exercised by any person until his or her appointment as such has been so ratified.
- 17.2 An Honorary Member shall be such a member of the Club until such membership is terminated by the members by ordinary resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Club or the date such member shall notify the Club in writing of his or her resignation whichever shall be the sooner. Any resignation shall take effect upon the date upon which it is received by the Club.
- 17.3 Honorary members shall not be required to pay any entrance fee or annual subscription or any other levy attributable to maintaining membership payable by other members but an Honorary Member shall be required to pay for all goods and services ordered by him and provided by or on behalf of the Club from time to time.

The Commodore – Madoc Yacht Club
The Commodore – National Yacht Club
The Chairman – Welsh Yachting Association
The Commodore – Royal St. George Yacht Club

The provisions of Rule 17.1 shall not apply in respect of the appointment of any person as an Honorary Member pursuant to the provisions of this Rule 17.4.

17.5 The number of Honorary Members shall be limited to Twenty Five.

18. Temporary Members

18.1 The Council shall have power in its absolute discretion to grant or refuse Temporary Membership to any persons and members of their immediate family (being the husband, wife, civil or other partner, father, mother or child of such temporary member) who are competing in an event or championship hosted by the Club.

18.2 Any officer of the Club shall have power in his absolute discretion to grant or refuse Temporary Membership to any member of any recognised yacht club:-

(a) visiting Abersoch in his yacht or any of his family or friends on board; or

(b) otherwise visiting Abersoch provided always that in the case of this sub-clause (b) such Temporary Membership shall extend only during the day on which such application for Temporary Membership has been granted and shall not be granted on more than three separate occasions (but not on any consecutive days) in any subscription year but no officer of the Club shall have power to grant Temporary Membership to any person to whom such membership has been refused by any other officer.

18.3 Temporary Membership shall be available only to persons who usually reside more than five kilometres from the Clubhouse.

18.4 A member may apply for Temporary Membership for any house guest by applying on the Temporary Membership Application Form and paying such Temporary Membership subscription as the Council may determine from time to time. Any two officers of the Club shall have the power in their absolute discretion to grant or refuse such application, but no two officers of the Club shall have power to grant Temporary Membership to any person to whom such membership has been refused by any other officer

18.5 Every Temporary Member shall undertake to the Club in the form prescribed by the Council from time to time to be bound by the Rules of the Club during such Temporary Membership but shall not be entitled to exercise any right, benefit or privilege of membership prior to the delivery to the Club of such undertaking.

18.6 A Temporary Membership shall take effect from the time at which the relevant Temporary Member signs the Register of Temporary Members kept in the Clubhouse for that purpose and shall be limited to a maximum period of one month and any person shall be limited to one period of Temporary Membership in any calendar year commencing on the 1 October in each year.

- 18.7 The Council has the power at all times to terminate any Temporary Membership without notice and in its absolute discretion by a simple majority vote.
- 18.8 Temporary Members shall not be entitled to any right, benefit or privilege of membership other than the personal use of the Club's premises for the duration of such Temporary Membership together with such other privileges (if any) as Council may from time to time determine.
- 18.9 A Temporary Member shall not be entitled to introduce a guest, to steer a boat or enter a boat for any club race.
- 18.10 A waiting period of 48 hours between the application being approved and introduction of the proposed Temporary Member shall be observed.

19. Lifeboat Members

- 19.1 All current members from time to time of the crew and administration staff of Abersoch Lifeboat Station shall be Associate Members of the Club, such Membership ceasing on the day upon which they cease to be a member of the crew or administration staff of the Abersoch Lifeboat Station or, if earlier, upon receipt by the Club of written notice of resignation by such any such member.
- 19.2 Lifeboat Members shall not pay any annual subscription or entrance fee but a Lifeboat Member shall be required to pay for all goods and services ordered by him and provided by or on behalf of the Club from time to time.
- 19.3 Every Lifeboat Member shall undertake to the Club in the form prescribed by the Council from time to time to be bound by the Rules of the Club during such Lifeboat Membership but shall not be entitled to exercise any right, benefit or privilege of membership prior to the delivery to the Club of such undertaking.
- 19.4 Lifeboat Members shall not be entitled to any right, benefit or privilege of membership other than the personal use of the Club's premises for the duration of such membership together with such other privileges (if any) as Council may from time to time determine.

20. Coastguard Members

- 20.1 All current members from time to time of the crew and administration staff of Abersoch Coastguard Station shall be Associate Members of the Club, such Membership ceasing on the day upon which they cease to be a member of the crew or administration staff of the Abersoch Coastguard Station or, if earlier, upon receipt by the Club of written notice of resignation by such any such member.

- 20.2 Coastguard Members shall not pay any annual subscription or entrance fee but a Coastguard Member shall be required to pay for all goods and services ordered by him and provided by or on behalf of the Club from time to time.
- 20.3 Every Coastguard Member shall undertake to the Club in the form prescribed by the Council from time to time to be bound by the Rules of the Club during such Coastguard Membership but shall not be entitled to exercise any right, benefit or privilege of membership prior to the delivery to the Club of such undertaking.
- 20.4 Coastguard Members shall not be entitled to any right, benefit or privilege of membership other than the personal use of the Club's premises for the duration of such membership together with such other privileges (if any) as Council may from time to time determine.

21. Admission of Members

- 21.1 Members of all categories (whether full or associate) other than Life, Honorary, Temporary, Junior, Connected Junior, Lifeguard and Coastguard Members shall be elected to membership by a majority ballot of the Council. Life, Honorary, Temporary, Junior, Connected Junior, Lifeguard and Coastguard Members shall be elected or admitted to membership (as the case may be) in accordance with the provisions of these Rules relating to the election or admission of such members respectively.
- 21.2 Candidates for membership (other than Life, Honorary, Temporary, Junior, Connected Junior, Lifeguard and Coastguard Members who shall be elected or admitted to membership (as the case may be) in accordance with the provisions of these Rules relating to the election or admission of such members respectively) shall be proposed and seconded by separate full members of the Club of at least one year's standing entitled to attend and vote at a General Meeting of the Club. A candidate for membership shall complete and sign the requisite application form for membership and shall state therein the candidate's full name, residential address, email address (if the candidate has one), occupation and such other information as may from time to time be specified by Council. A candidate for membership shall also sign an undertaking in the form prescribed by the Council from time to time to be bound by the Club's Rules as amended from time to time. The duly completed application form and undertaking to be bound by the Club's Rules shall be forwarded together with the appropriate entrance fee and subscription, to the Club Secretary who shall communicate it to Council and if it is approved shall be entered in the register of Members. A summary of each application shall be posted in the Club not less than seven clear days before the ballot. The Council shall not be required to consider any application for membership which does not comply with the requirements of this Rule 21.2.
- 21.3 Admission to membership shall be conditional upon payment by the candidate of the first year's annual subscription and the appropriate entrance fee, both payable at the time of submitting the application form. The Council shall not be required to consider any application for membership until such payments have been received in full by the Club. Such payments shall be immediately refunded (but without interest thereon) by the Club in the event that the application is unsuccessful.

- 21.4 Any omission or inaccuracy in the particulars relating to any candidate shall render his election voidable in the absolute discretion of Council. The Club shall notify in writing as soon as reasonably practicable any person whose election the Council has voided together with reasonable particulars of the reason for voiding the same. A person whose election has been voided may in the absolute discretion of the Council make a further application or applications for membership of the Club. In the event that a further application is not made within 28 days after a candidate has been notified that his election has been voided, the Club shall thereafter refund pro-rata from the date that the election was voided all fees and/or subscriptions for the current year (but without interest thereon) already paid by the candidate but not any earlier year or years provided that no part of any subscription or entrance fee shall be refunded if the election has been voided on the grounds of fraud or that the same failed to state properly any materialy required particular.

22. Entrance Fees and Subscriptions

- 22.1 Entrance fee and subscription rates and all other levies (without limitation) payable by members (whether annual or otherwise) for all classes of full and associate membership shall be determined from time to time by ordinary resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Club on the recommendation of the Council. All entrance fee and subscription rates and other levies shall subsist until such time as the same shall be determined otherwise by ordinary resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Club.
- 22.2 Entrance fees shall not be payable by or for Junior and Connected Junior Members.
- 22.3 The subscription year shall run from 1 October in each year to the next following 30 September.
- 22.4 Annual Subscriptions shall become due and payable on the First day of January in the year next following the 1 October referred to in Rule 22.3 and all other fees and/or levies approved at a General Meeting of the Club shall be payable on demand.
- 22.5 Any candidate for Membership whose application is received after 1 August but before the 1 October in the same year shall be entitled to a 50% discount on the annual subscription for the year ending on 30 September of that year, but shall pay the full annual amount for his next and subsequent years' subscriptions.
- 22.6 Any Member whose annual subscription approved by the members in General Meeting shall be paid not later than two calendar months after the date on which it becomes due shall be entitled to a discount of 9% thereof or such other discount as the Members shall in General Meeting agree.

- 22.7 All Members will receive written notification of the annual subscription due, such notification to be despatched prior to the 30 November in each year.
- 22.8 Any Member whose entrance fee or annual subscription or other levy approved by the Members in General Meeting remains unpaid four calendar months after the date on which it becomes due shall be thereupon automatically suspended from Membership and notice of his suspension shall be served upon him in accordance with Rule 27 herein and shall also be posted on the Club Notice Board. If such suspended Member shall provide within 14 days after notice of his suspension has been served on him, an explanation in writing to the Club for his failure to pay within such period of four calendar months which the Council considers, in its absolute discretion, to be reasonable, such suspension shall be terminated by the Council and such termination of the suspension shall take effect immediately. The Club shall notify such suspended member in writing as soon as reasonably practicable after the meeting of the Council at which such suspended member's explanation has been considered by the Council whether or not his suspension has been terminated. If such suspension has not been so terminated by the Council, then that member's membership of the Club shall terminate immediately upon service, in accordance with Rule 27 herein, on him of notice that such suspension has not been terminated, and notice of such termination of membership shall be posted on the Club notice board. Any member whose membership has been suspended shall not be entitled to exercise any right, benefit or privilege of membership during any period of suspension.
- 22.9 At the discretion of Council, members may be offered the option to pay subscriptions by Standing Order and/or Direct Debit, subject to a reasonable additional charge in respect of the costs of running such a service.
- 22.10 Any Lower Young Single Member may elect by notice in writing to the Club given at any time prior to 1 January of the subscription year immediately following that in which he has attained 21 years of age to pay a lump sum subscription (determined in accordance with Rule 22.1) covering the period from and including that subscription year until the end of the subscription year during which such member attains 25 years of age ("Final Year") and provided that such lump sum is paid by or on behalf of that Lower Young Single Member in full prior to the next following 1 March, such Lower Young Single Member shall not have any liability to pay any other subscription for his membership of the Club for that or any succeeding year of his membership up to and including his Final Year but thereafter shall be liable to pay the relevant subscription attributable to his membership. Failure to pay such lump sum subscription within the period specified for the same or such extended period as the Council may in its absolute discretion determine shall render the election null and void and no further election may be made thereafter by that Lower Young Single Member.
- 22.11 Any member who on 30 September 2013 was an existing Young Member ("Young Member") of the Club less than 26 years old under the Rules then subsisting may elect by notice in writing to the Club given at any time prior to 1 January 2014 to pay a lump sum subscription (determined in accordance with Rule 22.1) covering the period from and including that subscription year until the end of his Final Year (as defined in Rule 22.10) and provided that such lump sum is paid by or on behalf of that Young Member in full prior to the next following 1 March, such Young Member shall not have any liability to pay any other subscription for his membership of the Club for that or any succeeding year of his membership up to and including his Final Year but thereafter shall be liable to pay the relevant subscription attributable to his membership. Failure to pay such lump sum subscription within the period specified for the same or such extended period as the Council may in its absolute discretion determine shall render the election null and void and no further election may be made thereafter by that Young Member.

23. Acceptance of the Rules

23.1 All members of whatever class or category (including without limitation associate members under Article 9 of the Articles of Association of the Club) shall be bound by these Rules.

24. Conduct of Members

24.1 Any member wilfully infringing or violating the Rules, Regulations or Bye-Laws of the Club or whose conduct in or out of the Club is inconsistent with good behaviour or derogatory or injurious to the interests of the Club may be reported to the Council by any member and the Council may decide, in its absolute discretion, to suspend such reported member for a period not exceeding three months or to terminate the membership of the member concerned. If the Council shall consider, in its reasonable opinion, that a member has conducted himself in a manner which would entitle the Council, to suspend him or terminate his membership under this Rule 24.1, the Council shall serve written notice upon such member giving reasonable particulars of the conduct in question. Such member shall provide within 14 days after service of such notice an explanation in writing to the Club for his conduct which the Council shall consider at its next meeting thereafter and if the Council, in its absolute discretion, considers such explanation to be acceptable, the Council shall not suspend such member or terminate his membership but otherwise shall suspend for such period or terminate the same as it sees fit in its absolute discretion. The Club shall notify such member in writing as soon as reasonably practicable after the meeting of the Council at which such member's explanation has been considered by the Council whether or not the Council has suspended or terminated his membership, as the case may be, and in the case of a member who has been suspended, the period during which such suspension shall take effect. If such membership shall be terminated by the Council, then that member's membership of the Club shall terminate immediately upon service, in accordance with Rule 27 herein, on him of notice of such termination of membership. Notice of the suspension or termination of any membership under this Rule 24.1 shall be posted on the Club notice board. Any member whose membership has been suspended shall not be entitled to exercise any right or privilege of membership during any period of suspension.

25. Termination of Membership

25.1 Any member whose membership of the Club shall be terminated under any provision of these Rules shall immediately forfeit all rights, benefits and privileges of membership but shall continue to be liable for all entrance fees, subscriptions, levies and other sums without limitation due to the Club and unpaid prior to the date of the termination of his membership. For the purposes of this Rule 25.1, the date of termination of membership shall be the date upon which notice of termination of membership is served on such member pursuant to Rule 27.

25.2 The membership of any Connected Family Member and/or any Connected Junior Member shall terminate automatically and without notice upon the termination of the membership of the relevant Young Family Member or Adult Family Member or Young Couples Member or Adult Couples Member to which such Connected Family Member or Connected Junior Member is connected. Any Connected Family Member or Connected Junior Member whose membership has been terminated by virtue of this Rule 25.2 may apply thereafter for membership of the Club in an appropriate class. If such application duly made is received by the Club Secretary within 28 days after the date of termination of the membership of the relevant connected Young Family Member or Adult Family Member or Young Couples Member or Adult Couples Member, as the case may be, then such applicant shall not be required to pay an entrance fee. The Council may, in its absolute discretion, waive the requirement for payment of the entrance fee for any such applicant for full membership whose application is not received by the Club Secretary within 28 days after the date of termination of the membership of the relevant connected Young Family Member or Adult Family Member or Young Couples Member or Adult Couples Member.

26. Resignation

26.1 Any member may retire, resign or withdraw from the Club by giving notice in writing to that effect to the Club Secretary and on paying with such notice any subscription, levy or other sum without limitation due to the Club which is unpaid at the date of such notice and any such member shall cease to be a member from whichever is the later of the date of receipt by the Club Secretary of such notice and the date of payment by the member of all unpaid subscriptions, levies or other sums without limitation. In no case shall any member be entitled to repayment of any subscription, levy or other sum paid to the Club or any part of any of them, whether paid for the current year or for any other year or years.

27. Notices

27.1 Any notice may be served by the Club upon any member, either personally or by sending through the post in a pre-paid envelope or wrapper or by facsimile transmission addressed to such member at his registered place of address. Any notice sent by post shall be deemed to have been served on the date following that on which the envelope or wrapper containing the same is posted by first class post. A certificate in writing signed by the Club Secretary or other officer of the Club that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice was so addressed and posted by first class post shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

- 27.2 Without prejudice to Rule 27.1, any notice may be served by the Club upon any member by sending the same by e-mail to such member despatched to such email address as such member has notified to the Club. Any notice sent by email shall be deemed to have been served on the date it was despatched if despatched before 5 pm otherwise on the date following the date of despatch. A certificate in writing signed by the Club Secretary or other officer of the Club that the email containing the notice was so despatched shall be conclusive evidence thereof.
